

Device distribution. Reinvented.

FAST FACTS

What is it?

A unique secure global cloud-based distribution platform for mobile devices.

Who is it for?

Any professional business involved in buying or selling mobile devices on the open market.

What does it provide?

Greater transparency and total reliability in device trading.

Introducing CloudX, a brand new marketplace for mobile devices.

CloudX is a global distribution platform, but one like no other. Transactions are anonymous and executed directly and entirely securely on the platform. Payment and delivery are then fully bonded and guaranteed through our exclusive secure integrated supply chain. This boosts trading confidence and ultimately your advantage and profitability.

CloudX serves the entire global device ecosystem - from manufacturers, network operators and distributors through to traders and dealers. Whether your goal is to find new suppliers, sell surplus stock or simply to trade with greater confidence, CloudX is your total solution.

How does CloudX work?
